Senior Frontend developer

Warsaw, Poland

Was involved in the development of the main ExpressVPN products. I've been leading a product team of 5 which worked on the Subscriptions module. Maintained the full cycle of feature development, such as ideation and planning sessions, assigning the tasks, communication with stakeholders and shipping production-ready code.

Developed and implemented A/B experiments on the Subscription module.
Migrated from front-end monolith into React/TS stack as a micro-service.
